

Please do not interfere with the current Indiana do not call list law. Our quality of life at home has significantly improved with almost zero annoying calls during dinner time. This is our sacred time for our family. Please do not give in to the special interest and lobbyist!!!